

HERITAGE SOCIETY NEWSLETTER

by Lois DeFord

A new monthly newsletter to keep everyone informed.

Nora Flatley reports good news. We are receiving more money than we are spending. $1,312.32 in our treasury.

John Olkoski thinks it might be a good idea to form a nominating committee chairman to choose next years possible boardmembers. He volunteered for the honor, so give him a call at 373-5096 if you are interested in serving on the Board. The next board induction will be in February.

Patrice Gibson is currently working on a film about Pacific Grove as remembered by long time residents. When completed it will be shown on the local TV station.

Patrice is also busy showing our slide show to gifted classes in the P.G. schools. Hopefully some of the students brainpower can be used to help us put together another set of slides on Pacific Grove's architecture. More slides are being made of the step by step restoration of the Gosbey House. A short version of this show was shown at the recent general meeting.

Hurray! The Heritage House was finally moved on Monday, November 14. The house now stands at the corner of Wood and Lighthouse. Patrice got pictures of the whole affair.

The new chairpersons of the Historical Research Committee are Marge and Brad Smith. If you are interested in working on this exciting and informative committee call them at 373-2835.

Heritage Society Christmas Caroling Evening! December 23 Friday night. We will meet at the Christian Church at 6:30 to go caroling through the Retreat and then return to the church for refreshments. Everyone is invited (children too!) Bring flashlights, caroling books, and musical instruments.

Join us in Pacific Grove on Saturday, December 10, 1977. Workshop topic: Town Revival - Success Stories of Surveys, Victorian Restoration and Historic Preservation. Location: Pacific Grove Art Center (an adaptive reuse), 568 Lighthouse Avenue, Pacific Grove. Workshop registration begins at 9:00 A.M. ; at 12:00, we will break for lunch and return for the membership meeting at 1:30 P.M.
